NEWSLETTER • NOVEMBER 2015

Message from Carolyn Farrell, President of WSWU

If you missed the Spring Luncheon, and the Neiman Marcus Summer Trend Event, we hope you are free to accept the Chancellor's invitation to our third and final 50th Anniversary Celebration. Please join us on November 10th at 6 p.m. as we hear from Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton on the latest campus happenings. Following the Chancellor, Provost Holden Thorp will provide a look into Washington University's Innovation and Entrepreneurship: Why a University is not a Business. Don't miss our special celebratory reception at 5:30 p.m. on November 10th! There is no charge to attend, guests are welcome, and donations to the Elizabeth Gray Danforth Scholarship will be gratefully accepted. Email your response TODAY to the WSWU Office at sharon_britt@wustl.edu

With Warm Wishes,

Putting It All Together: Composing a Life

Over 200 female students registered for the 2015 Composing A Life panel event on October 27th. After dinner, students lingered.....not ready to let the panelists leave.

One student commented, 'It is the most impressive speaking event I've heard at WU so far. The lives that the five guest speakers experienced, the words they shared with us....enlightened me a lot. I feel so motivated, so energetic in order to be as confident, professional, prepared as they are.' If you would like to read the full article in student life, it can be found here.

Fun with Funding

Our Funding committee has a wonderful time learning about student-run projects and activities on campus, and they are always looking for ways that WSWU can help support these bright, motivated young people. One of the projects approved last year was the Wash U Racing team. After a year of hard work, the team placed in the top third of 115 teams at the Formula SAE 2015 Collegiate Design Series in Michigan this past June. The article in the record can be found here.

As members, you are helping to support the funding of these student activities. Consider attending some of these fun-filled and educational events in St. Louis as they come up. We will provide a list of the 2015-16 projects (and calendar) as soon as the projects are reviewed and approved.
