

The Women's Society of Washington University

The Women's Society of Washington University, a group of nearly 600 members, was founded in 1965. We engage members in ongoing learning and support student education through scholarships, projects, and leadership opportunities. Our vision is to enrich lives through education within the Washington University community.

THE ELIZABETH GRAY DANFORTH FULL TUITION SCHOLARSHIP

 Washington University in St. Louis

THE ELIZABETH GRAY DANFORTH SCHOLARSHIP

- Provides two-year, full-tuition scholarships for students from the St. Louis Community College system who transfer to Washington University.
- Scholarship recipients are chosen for
  - academic excellence
  - enthusiasm for learning
  - clarity of goals
  - potential for leadership
  - dedication to community service

Who is Eligible

- Any qualified student from St. Louis Community College who is admitted as a transfer student to Washington University is automatically considered for this unique, competitive scholarship.
- Students must complete 60 transferable credit hours from St. Louis Community College by the end of the spring semester.

How to Apply

- Apply for admission online at: admissions.wustl.edu
Applications must be submitted by March 15th.

Interview

- Applicants selected as finalists will be notified and asked to interview on campus in early April. The scholarship selection committee will interview and select the scholarship recipient.

Transfer Admission Guidelines

Transfer admission to Washington University is both selective and competitive. The strongest candidates for admission should present proof of a high school diploma or equivalent and proof of a high level of academic success at their current institution.

Successful applicants must present at least a B+ average in courses across a broad academic curriculum.

Some academic divisions require specific grades in specific courses. For example, students with interests in engineering, business, or the physical or biological sciences must present a strong background in science and mathematics including calculus.

Transfer Application

- If you took either the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and/or the American College Test (ACT) during high school, you must submit the test score results as part of your application. Tests taken during college are inadmissible.
- International students whose first language is not English are required to submit results from either TOEFL or IELTS.
- Applications must be submitted by March 15th.

The Facts

- We consider transfer students from all St. Louis Community College locations each year. The scholarship award does not rotate among the campuses.
- The number of applications received from St. Louis Community College varies every year. Every applicant has a good chance.
- Both men and women are eligible for the scholarship.
- All transfer students from St. Louis Community College who are admitted to Washington University are automatically considered for the Elizabeth Gray Danforth scholarship.
- Washington University financial assistance counselors will work with any finalist not selected for the Elizabeth Gray Danforth Scholarship to offer a financial assistance package to attend Washington University.
- There are no age limitations for student eligibility.
